

TONI ROSS

THE GARDEN OF FRIENDS AT THE LEIBER COLLECTION

I am pleased to invite you to the opening of the 2021 The Garden of Friends exhibition at The Leiber Collection this Saturday from 2–5PM. I have created a semi-permanent, site-responsive gold leaf installation, In Light Of, in the garden, accompanied by fellow artists Scott Bluedorn, Philippe Cheng, Peter Dayton, Papi Deer, Jeremy Dennis, Conrad De Kwiatkowski, Saskia Friedrich, Margaret Garrett, Jeremy Grosvenor, Laurie Lambrecht, Jill Musnicki, Bastienne Schmidt, Christine Sciulli, Aurelio Torres, and Almond Zigmund. I hope to see you there.

TONI ROSS, In Light Of, 2021, gold leaf, dimensions variable, a site-responsive installation for The Garden of Friends at The Leiber Collection.

IN LIGHT OF

A site responsive installation on the grounds of The Leiber Collection, East Hampton, New York, 2021

In light of the shade where moss is invited to grow.

In light of Judith Lieber's legacy of inspiration and invention with precious metals and jewels.

In light of Gerson Lieber's commitment to his garden and the beautiful, slender oak trees that thrive there.

In light of a newfound awareness of taking our time, of slowing down and of noticing the previously uncelebrated.
